Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 20, 2016, CorEnergy Infrastructure Trust, Inc. (NYSE: CORR, CORRPrA) (“CorEnergy” or the “Company”) announced that it has filed a Pinedale Corridor L.P.’s Motion to Dismiss Debtor Ultra Wyoming LGS LLC’s Bankruptcy Case or Alternatively, to Appoint A Trustee or Examiner and its Memorandum in Support thereof with the bankruptcy court handling the Ultra Petroleum bankruptcies.

Dave Schulte, Chief Executive Officer of CorEnergy, noted “The filing we made today is simply intended to protect the interests of our stockholders. All payments due under our lease to date have been timely made. The deadline for the tenant of the Pinedale Liquids Gathering System to assume our lease is November 28th. We will not be commenting further on this matter at this time.”

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains certain statements that may include “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, included herein are “forward-looking statements.” Although CorEnergy believes that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements are reasonable, they do involve assumptions, risks and uncertainties, and these expectations may prove to be incorrect. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of factors, including those discussed in CorEnergy’s reports that are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this report. Other than as required by law, CorEnergy does not assume a duty to update any forward-looking statement. In particular, any distribution paid in the future to our stockholders will depend on the actual performance of CorEnergy, its costs of leverage and other operating expenses and will be subject to the approval of CorEnergy’s Board of Directors and compliance with leverage covenants.
