Tortoise Capital Resources Corp. Announces Dividend Increase and Expense Reimbursement Agreement with Advisor

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OVERLAND PARK, Kan. – November 12, 2007 – The Board of Directors of Tortoise Capital Resources Corp. (NYSE: TTO), today declared the company's third quarter dividend of $0.23 per share, compared to $0.18 in the previous quarter. The dividend will be distributed on Nov. 30, 2007 to stockholders of record on Nov. 23, 2007. This represents a 28 percent increase over the prior quarter's distribution.

For tax purposes, the character of the dividend will be determined at year-end and will be reported to stockholders at the beginning of 2008 on their Form 1099. Based on current financial information, this dividend is estimated to consist of 100 percent return of capital for book purposes. This is subject to change based upon completion of the company's fiscal year.

Expense Reimbursement Agreement Announced

Tortoise Capital Resources (the company) also announced that Tortoise Capital Advisors will reimburse the company an amount equaling 25 basis points of its average managed assets for the quarter ended Nov. 30, 2007, and through calendar year 2008.

"This expense reimbursement agreement will partially mitigate the impact of higher than expected expenses incurred by our company during the ramp up of our investment portfolio," said Tortoise Capital Resources' President, Ed Russell.
